GOV. THOMAS E. DEWEY

Dewey Pledges Justice In Acceptance Speech

Convention Hall, Philadelphia, June 24—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey accepted the Republican presidential nomination tonight with a pledge to strike for a United America and a world order founded upon justice and peace.

To the cheering delegates who had nominated him unanimously, he said:

"To me, to be a Republican in this hour is to dedicate one's life to the freedom of men. As long as the world is half free and half slave, we must peacefully labor to help men everywhere to achieve liberty."

On unity in America, the presidential nominee brought a cheer by ad libbing into his prepared speech the statement:

"Let me assure you that beginning next January 30 there will be teamwork in the government of the United States."

Dewey came onto the convention platform at 8:19 p.m.

A great roar went up and the packed thousands on convention floor and galleries stood and cheered.

Dewey waved and in an aside to chairman Joe Martin, "Hey Joe, how are you?"

Mrs. Dewey was by his side. She wore a corsage of orchids.

Introduced by Martin, Dewey said he was "happy to present the next president of the United States, Thomas E. Dewey."

Another big roar went up at that.

When he said, "I accept the nomination" there were more whoops.

The delegates yelled again when Dewey told them, "I come to you unfettered by a single obligation to any living person."

Dewey's ride to the hall was a triumphal procession and he was almost crushed by an encircling wall of well wishers on entering the building.

Appellate Court Denies Petition Sought By NLRB

Chicago, June 24—(AP)—The U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals today denied a petition of the National Labor Relations Board to enforce an NLRB "cease and desist" order.

The NLRB order named two Melan, Wis., firms, Penokee Veneer company and the Splined-Wood corporation. It directed that the companies "cease and desist from interfering with the right of their employees to bargain collectively through Local 12-381 of the CIO International Wood workers of America by attempting to bargain with their employees individually."

The companies had addressed letters to striking employees April 15, 1948, asking them whether they wanted to return to work. The letters stated wages, hours and working conditions.

The NLRB claimed this was interfering with the employees right to bargain collectively.

Circuit Court of Appeals Judges Will M. Sparks and Otto Kerner, and U.S. District Judge Charles E. Briggle reviewed the case. Judge Kerner dissented.

The majority opinion held that the companies "were within their legal rights in undertaking to reopen their plants and were at liberty to employ anybody who wished to work for them."

The letters "disclosed no effort whatsoever on the part of the companies to bargain with the employees individually," Judge Sparks and Briggle held.

Soft Coal Work Pact Set By Lewis, Owners

Washington, June 24—(AP)—President Truman's emergency board said tonight an agreement has been reached by John L. Lewis and soft coal operators on a new contract averting possibility of a nationwide coal strike in July.

Chairman David L. Cole of the inquiry board said details of the contract will be put in written form tonight. The agreement was worked out just two days after the board's prodding got Lewis and the operators around the bargaining table for serious talk on an agreement.

Contract Will End Wednesday

The present contract expires June 30. It was understood privately that the new agreement would give miners a $1-a-day wage increase and a $100,000-a-year welfare-pension fund.

The United Mine Workers chief and the operators scheduled a meeting for 7 p.m., to complete writing the contract.

All through the day there were signs of progress toward the agreement.

Steel Men Silent

The steel company negotiator, Harry M. Moses, took part in the day's talks before the 4 p.m. deadline for the fact-finding board's report. Steel is interested because it owns mines which supply the industry with fuel. Moses said tonight he went along on the settlement "with reluctance."

The government had invoked the Taft-Hartley law procedure which could have led to an injunction with the miners—or at least a slowing down in the pits.

George F. Campbell, head of the Illinois Coal Operators association, said earlier after a 24-hour session with Lewis that "we made very good progress."

Board Assigned By Truman

President Truman had assigned the board to the dispute as the first step in obtaining a Taft-Hartley law injunction against Lewis and the 400,000 soft coal miners in order to avert another nation-wide strike when the present contract expires.

Other provisions of the present contract which reportedly would be unchanged call for a $100 vacation payment, overtime for a sixth work day in one week, add a clause that the miners will only work when "able and willing."

Start Suggesting Names For Second Spot On GOP Slate

Convention Hall, Philadelphia, June 24—(AP)—Republican leaders tonight began suggesting and suggesting vice presidential running mates for Governor Thomas E. Dewey.

Word came from Dewey headquarters that the field is wide open. But usually the Republican presidential nominee has much to say about the No. 2 place on the ticket. Immediate speculation centered around these men:

Speculate On . . .

House G.O.P. leader Charles A. Halleck who swung Indiana's delegates onto the Dewey bandwagon early in the voting and held them there.

Senator John W. Bricker, who was Dewey's running mate in 1944. The former Ohio governor, who now is in the Senate, probably would accept an offer.

Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota, even though his managers say he does not want the job and will not take it.

Governor Earl Warren of California, who helped clinch the Dewey nomination by releasing his solid votes and urging them to vote for Dewey. Friends of Warren say he is not a vice presidential candidate.

Gov. Green A Possibility

Governor Dwight Green of Illinois, who played a prominent role supporting Senator Taft for the presidential nomination and was temporary chairman of this convention after keynoting it.

Senator Wherry of Nebraska who has been acting as GOP leader in the Senate and is reported willing to take the post.

Nomination of the vice president was left until Friday with delegates assembling at 8:30 a.m. CST.

Formal speeches, including seconding talks, are on the schedule. But overnight discussions with the vice presidential possibilities may save the delegates much time.

With Dewey from the eastern seaboard, usual political strategy would give the No. 2 place to someone from the western half of the country.

The couple entered the governor's official New York State car and roared away to the shrieking of sirens and horns and the cheers of the close-packed spectators.

The two-mile trip took just 12 minutes.

The Dewey boys, Tom, Jr., 15, and John M., 12, were in the hall even when their father was nominated.

Demo Chairman Says Nomination 'Repudiates' Taft

Narragansett, R. I., June 24—(AP)—Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath said tonight the Republican convention, by its nomination of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, has "repudiated" Senator Robert A. Taft and the record of the Republican party which he achieved in the 80th congress.

"By denying the legislative record of Senator Taft," the senator said in a statement at his summer home here, "the GOP has shown that it appreciates the enormity of the failure of the 80th congress."

"Now, it will be necessary," Senator McGrath continued, "for Governor Dewey to explain away to all that the congress did or failed to do under Senator Taft's leadership."

DIES AT 104

Piano, Ill., June 24—(AP)—Mrs. Louisa Dean, who would have celebrated her 105th birthday June 30, died today of pneumonia. She believed herself the oldest woman in the state.

Surviving are a daughter, a son, two grandchildren, four great grandchildren and one great great grandchild.

Greek Army Bombs Rebel Positions

Second Army Corps Headquarters, Kos, Greece, June 24—(AP)—The Greek army rained 500-pound fire bombs today on Communist rebels fighting desperately to defend the eastern flank of their Grammos mountain stronghold.

Unofficial reports listed nearly 600 guerrilla casualties since the offensive started Sunday night. Rebel leader Markos Vafiadis was reported to have about 7,000 men in the 1,000-mile-square Grammos pocket.

There are an estimated 23 million home sewing enthusiasts in the United States.

Owosso Unexcited, Only Proud, About Dewey Nomination

Owosso, Mich., June 24—(AP)—About the only excited person in this small industrial city tonight was Mrs. Anne Thomas Dewey, 60-year-old mother of the Republican presidential nominee.

To the other 18,000 residents, Thomas E. Dewey's eminence as a political figure was getting to be pretty much of an old story.

This does not, however, diminish Owosso's pride in the man who was born on a cold March evening in 1902.

When asked how she felt, Mrs. Dewey said:

"How else would I feel at a time like this? I'm proud."

She said she did not plan to go to Philadelphia, but indicated her son might visit his home town during the campaign.

Mayor Kenneth L. Crawford said no civic celebration is planned until and if Dewey comes to town personally.

"After all," he said, "we have been through this before."

Philadelphia, June 24—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's first act after he returned to his hotel from the national Republican convention tonight was to telephone his mother in Owosso, Mich.

He told a huge crowd in front of his hotel that this was the reason for his delay in appearing on a balcony to address it.

"I gave her my love and I asked her how she was," he said in his talk.

No. 2 Hopeful

JOHN BRICKER

Ohio Publisher Says Bricker Will Run With Dewey

Philadelphia, June 24—(AP)—Dudley White, Newark, Ohio publisher said tonight that U. S. Senator John W. Bricker of Ohio will be given the Republican nomination for vice president.

White, a member of the Ohio Republican convention delegation and one of the strategists for Senator Robert A. Taft said:

"Arrangements for Senator Bricker to receive the vice presidential nomination have already been worked out. He will accept."

Report Communist Nations Will Form East German State

Warsaw, Poland, Friday, June 25—(AP)—It was reported authoritatively early today that the foreign ministers of the eight eastern nations in the Communist orbit decided to set up a separate government in Eastern Germany.

The conference ended at midnight last night.

Russia and seven of her eastern satellites were believed to have put the finishing touches to a plan for an Eastern German state whose capital may be Leipzig.

Such a state, conference observers said, would be the logical answer to the six-power London agreement to set up a federalized Western German government. The eastern state may be expected to seek the support of communists in Western Germany to lend color to a claim of representing all Germany.

(The Moscow radio said the meeting ended after the foreign ministers had drawn up a statement on "the subject of the decisions of the London conference on Monday.")

The conferees represented here, other than Poland, are Albania, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, Romania and Hungary. All are represented in the cominform except Albania.

The six western powers—the U.S., Britain, France, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg—recently agreed on establishment of a separate Western German government.

Stevenson Asserts State Constitution Must Be Rewritten

Salem, Ill., June 24—(AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson, Democratic nominee for governor, said last night the state's 1870 constitution "makes it impossible to operate under modern conditions with maximum efficiency."

"In fact, it makes it difficult to operate at all with even minimum efficiency," Stevenson declared in a prepared speech.

The Democratic candidate said that one way to obtain better government is through "the major operation of rewriting our archaic state constitution."

"It is a major operation that was promised eight years ago but has not been performed. I hope that project can be taken out of partisan politics."

"And I think there need be no apprehension of Cook county domination of the downstate in a constitutional convention composed of 60 precinct downstate members."

Wallace Says GOP Convention Marks Start Of New Era

New York, June 24—(AP)—Henry A. Wallace said tonight the Republican party's new platform signals "the formal end of the now outmoded division between the Republican and Democratic parties."

It marks, he said in a statement, "the start of a new era in which there will be only the new People's Party and the old Republican-Democratic party of the monopolies with its war and depression program."

The third party presidential candidate said the Republicans, in their platform adopted at Philadelphia, stated they would "invite the minority party to join us under the next Republican administration in stopping partisan politics."

The home sewing enthusiast prefers white to any color during the summer months.

Berlin Tension Mounts As Reds Tighten Squeeze On West Zones

By Edwin Shanke

Berlin, June 24—(AP)—The Russians snapped off electricity, milk and food for western Berlin today but the American military governor declared they "cannot drive us out of Berlin by any action short of war."

Steel helmeted U. S. soldiers in armored cars with mounted machineguns and rifle-carrying military police patrolled the American sector and gave the city its most war-like atmosphere since 1945.

Tommies Protect Scrap Stocks

British soldiers were dispatched to protect scrap metal stocks they said the Russians were trying to haul from the British sector. It was announced tonight. The British said they rejected a Russian demand to withdraw the soldiers.

The British countered the Soviet blockade of western Berlin by embargoing coal and steel shipments from the Ruhr to the Soviet zone.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American commander, took similar action by suspending all trade shipments to western Germany.

Soviets Make Statement

The Soviet military administration declared tonight the allied Kommandatura "has practically ceased to exist as a body for the administration of Berlin." The statement was an answer to a western proposal earlier this week to solve Berlin's currency crisis in the Kommandatura.

The statement by Marshal Vasily D. Sokolovsky, Russian military governor, indicated that the Soviets intend to ignore the Kommandatura—the four-power ruling body of Berlin—as well as the anti-communist city government.

The American military patrols were sent out to guard against "unrest," it was explained.

Clay said the western sectors had enough water supplies of their own, and could furnish about half the normal consumption of electric power. But this supply is dependent on coal which must be shipped in.

Exchange of old reichsmarks for new Russian-stamped currency proceeded smoothly in eastern Berlin. The exchange of old reichsmarks for new western-approved Deutsche marks in western Berlin begins tomorrow.

Taft Congratulates Dewey; Will Hold Conference Soon

Philadelphia, June 24—(AP)—Senator Robert A. Taft telephoned Gov. Thomas E. Dewey at 7:35 p.m. tonight to congratulate him on winning the Republican nomination for president.

"I congratulated him and he said he wanted to talk with me," the Ohio senator told newsmen who greeted him outside his hotel room after the New York governor's victory was assured.

Taft was smiling and appeared almost relieved as he greeted the newsmen with "hello boys."

Taft said he told Dewey that "I would be glad to help him in any way I could."

It was reported that the new G.O.P. presidential candidate wanted to set together with the pre-convention presidential aspirants and discuss candidates for vice president.

Mrs. Taft, who has spent months campaigning in behalf of her husband, came out to speak to the newsmen. She, too, was smiling and exclaimed:

"Hello, boys, I'm going to miss you, I'm afraid."

When someone asked if she would support Candidate Dewey, she replied, "I always do what Bob does. Yes indeed."

Chicagoan Suing Western Union For $10,000

Chicago, June 24—(AP)—A Chicago woman today sued the Western Union Telegraph Co. for $10,000, alleging that delay in delivery of a telegram prevented her from buying a Lake Erie Island.

In her Superior court suit, Mrs. Mary Bruce Lototsky, 55, said she lived on the island when a child. She said the island, Catwaba Island near Port Clinton, O., was up for sale last March.

Her husband, Peter, 60, a drafting instructor, went to Sandusky, O., to bid $6,000 for the property. Her suit said that Western Union refused to give him a $2,000 money order she wired as a down payment.

The suit added that the island was then sold to another bidder for $3,800 who has since refused to sell.

Mrs. Lototsky's counsel said that the island is a 20-acre historic spot near where Commodore Oliver Perry fought the battle of Lake Erie.

EXCOMMUNICATED

Vatican City, June 24—(AP)—Reports reached the Vatican today that Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty, primate of Hungary, has excommunicated the members of the Hungarian government and parliament who on June 16 nationalized Hungary's Catholic schools.

Six hundred years before the birth of Christ the Book of Job spoke of an evil that "consumeth, as a garment that is moth eaten."

Nebraska Engineer Sends Box To King

Falls City, Neb., June 24—(AP)—When Gus Phillips, now a Falls City railroad engineer, left Bulgaria as a "penniless boy" to come to the United States, King Ferdinand was on the throne.

Today a food package was on its way to the former king, sent by the same Gus Phillips, said by request. Phillips said the request was contained in a letter just received from Ferdinand, who abdicated in 1918 in favor of his son, Boris. Ferdinand now lives in an old castle in Coburg, Germany.

The letter was in reply to one he sent the king last December, Phillips said.

Draft, Defense Bills Signed By President

Washington, June 24—(AP)—President Truman today signed the draft bill for $6,705,418,163 will enable them to immediately begin building both manpower and equipment dollars to the army, navy and air force.

His action on the conscription measure makes it law and stops the flood of enlistments in the National Guard and reserves by men 19 through 25 seeking to sidestep induction into the regular services.

Between 200,000 and 250,000 men are expected to be drafted the first year.

Signs Navy Bill

The first defense measure signed today was the navy money bill totaling $2,749,059,250 for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

It includes funds to start the world's largest ship, a 65,000-ton aircraft carrier to cost about $127,000,000. By using wartime reserves and previous appropriations, the navy has more than five billion to spend this year.

Will Choose Running Mate This Morning

by Douglas B. Cornell

Convention Hall, Philadelphia, June 24—(AP)—The Republican national convention unanimously placed its presidential banner for a second one time tonight in the hands of Thomas E. Dewey.

And proudly he accepted the nomination with a pledge to work for "freedom of men" everywhere in these times of "grove challenge."

The New York governor walked away with his personal victory on the third ballot of the 24th G.O.P. convention—1094 to 0.

McCormick Says . . .

Philadelphia, June 24—(AP)—The publisher of the Chicago Tribune who opposed Thomas E. Dewey's nomination for president, commented tonight when the Republicans nominated Dewey:

"It might have been worse—it might have been Vandenberg."

"Hallelujah," cried Mrs. Dudley Hay, convention secretary, as she finished the roll call.

Repeat Performance

The party had decided to try to make a winner in 1948 of its 1944 loser. Exactly four years ago, lacking a day, the G.O.P. gave Dewey his first fling at the White House. He lost to the old master, Franklin D. Roosevelt.

But this time, the Republicans were cockily proclaiming, it will be different against Harry S. Truman—or anyone else the Democrats might put up.

Dewey even gave them time in a two and a half hour recess to reorganize their strategy. The best they could do was meekly submit to the pressure of rank and file delegates who saw the New Yorker walking away with the nomination. Those delegates wanted to be with him when he won.

So the anti-Dewey boom collapsed dramatically and completely.

Candidates Switch Vets

One after another committees for the faltering candidates—Stassen in person—hustled to the convention platform. One after another they surrendered. Each in turn promised to pitch in and help guarantee a Republican election in November.

That settled it. The roll was called just because the rules said it had to be. Dewey came in to make his acceptance speech. His pretty wife stood by his side for a few moments, smiling at the crowd, but mostly looking at her husband with maybe a trace of tears in her eyes.

The convention quit until tomorrow at 8:30 a.m., C.S.T. Then it picks the man for second spot on the ticket. Dewey lieutenant said the governor had nobody specifically in mind, at that point.

To Choose Running Mate

Four years ago it was Governor, now Senator, John W. Bricker of Ohio. It conceivably could be Bricker again, delegates guessed. Bricker it was tonight who read to the convention a statement from Taft asking his delegates to vote for Dewey "with all of their force and enthusiasm."

Also in the running, as other delegates saw it, were men like House Republican leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana and Gov. Dwight H. Green of Illinois.

There was mention of Gov. Warren and Stassen, but their campaign managers said they wouldn't take it. There were whispers about Senator Kenneth Wherry of Nebraska.

In 1947, independent variety stores throughout the country did a total of $86,786,262 in notions business.

What Fire Insurance Can't Do

The President of the National Board of Fire Underwriters has taken issue with the idea that the phenomenal rise in fire losses has been entirely due to inflation, and that "real losses" have been going down. According to him, the number of fires has increased, the number of claims has increased, the number of conflagrations has increased, and the number of catastrophes has increased.

Fire insurance has cushioned the shock of fire for millions of people. But fire insurance, vital as it is, cannot perform miracles. It can pay us money if our property goes up in smoke. But it cannot restore a human being who is burned to death. It cannot recreate materials which have been turned to ashes. It cannot provide jobs for people who are thrown out of work when a factory turns into a huge torch. It cannot give us back keep-sakes and possessions whose extrinsic value far outweighs their intrinsic value. It cannot find homes for the homeless.

Inflation, as represented by higher replacement costs and claims, has been an influence in sending fire waste to record levels. But the fact that we are having more and more fires, both large and small, proves that the human factor is still the biggest thing. It is the same old story—carelessness, indifference, and downright ignorance are fire's most productive friends.

No one can prevent fire for us—no one else can keep a constant eye out to see that our property is safe. That ruth is the heart of the fire prevention problem.

Minneapolis-New Orleans Is Long Way By Bike But Two Girls Are Making It!

From Minneapolis to New Orleans is a long bicycle trip, but twenty-two year old Betty Wingreen and Pat Sorenson, of Minneapolis, are making it. Leaving home Wednesday morning, June 16, the girls, both students at the University of Minnesota, expect to reach St. Louis Friday afternoon. They peddled to Dubuque, Iowa, on Route 52, taking Route 61 from there to Davenport, and followed 67 to Jacksonville.

"Just Grand To Us"

"Everyone has been just grand to us," Pat reported each day the girls have stopped for the night at some farmhouse. Usually they are given a place to swing their tropical hammocks for the night. They fared extra well Tuesday and Wednesday night, when farm wives near Macomb and Virginia provided supper, a hot bath, the guest room and breakfast.

"Try and beat that if you can," Betty declared.

Far from being a pleasure trip, the girls are on a double mission—upon

Unconventional Voices In The GOP Convention

Philadelphia, June 24—(AP)—Convention sidights:

The people's voice, filtered through 14,000 Republican larynxes, wore down to a whisper today after nearly seven hours of yelling for their seven "people's choices."

The grand old party's grandest old party began with a stirring exchange of war whoops and boos between people for and against Governor Thomas E. Dewey.

It ended at 3:05 a.m. with a hoarse cheer for General Douglas MacArthur in a hall three-fourths empty.

By then the hall looked like it held a semi-nudest convention meeting the wreckage of a hurricane. Confetti, torn streamers, discarded paper cups and sandwich scraps littered the floor. Three fugitive red balloons bobbed against the ceiling, trailing "win with Taft" pennants.

The men delegates long since had discarded their coats, their neckties and ripped open their collars. Many lady delegates had slipped their feet out of their shoes.

As the delegates filed out, the janitors awoke from catnaps and went to work.

Had the dawn come up like thunder today it would have sounded only like a whimper to the weary Republicans dreaming sweet victory dreams—for Tom Dewey, Or Taft, Or Warren, Or Stassen, Or Baldwin, Or Vandenberg, Or MacArthur.

Last night the voices named these seven. Today or tonight or tomorrow votes will pick the one survivor—the 1948 nominee.

One elderly marcher, after trudging half an hour in the Dewey parade around the hall, sat down next to his wife and said:

"All right, mother, I've knocked myself out."

Another delegate grabbed a friend and tried to get him to march around again:

"Come on, Ed!"

"I'm for him all right," said Ed. "But my feet aren't."

During the Taft demonstration one girl, filling past the platform, called to a comrade:

Dividends On GI Policies Unlikely For A Full Year

Dividend payments to holders of GI insurance policies are not likely for at least a full year, Homer C. Bradney, administrator of the Illinois Veterans Commission, said today.

It is estimated by government officials, Bradney pointed out, that the one year delay is necessary to prepare for the paper work involved in paying dividends to millions of policyholders.

Dividends will be paid on all, except a very few contracts, whether lapsed or still in effect. The amount of each dividend will be determined by the amount of insurance carried, the period it was in force and the age of the insured.

Payments will be made on both term and converted insurance regardless of whether the insurance has been surrendered for cash value or loans. Beneficiaries will also receive dividends based on the amount of premiums paid by the insured prior to his or her death.

Bradney urged veterans not to write to federal officials for information because such inquiries will only further delay the administrative duties of the personnel. Instead, he said, veterans who seek information about insurance dividends should contact the nearest office of the Illinois Veterans Commission.

In Morgan county the Commission office is located at 6-7 Morrison Block, in Jacksonville.

Whitlock Remains Being Returned For Reburial

The body of Pvt. Bob L. Whitlock, son of Forrest E. Whitlock, 397 Hardin Ave., is among the 3,734 American World War II dead being returned to this country for final burial aboard the USAT Greenville Victory, it has been announced by the army.

Of the total of 3,734 remains being returned to the United States upon instruction of next of kin, 179 are from Illinois.

Arrival date of the vessel will be announced later. Ceremonies will be held at the port of embarkation on the day the ship arrives.

Pvt. Whitlock lost his life in the liberation of Europe and his remains have been interred in a temporary military cemetery in France.

Among others from central Illinois being returned aboard the Greenville Victory for reburial is the body of Pvt. Thomas Malby, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Malby, 1102 Oak street, Beardstown.

Under the program for final burial of World War II dead, next of kin may elect to have remains returned to the United States for burial in a private or national cemetery, or may request interment in a permanent American military cemetery overseas or a private cemetery in a foreign country which is the homeland of the deceased or of the next of kin.

GET THE NEW LOOK— SLIM DOWN YOUR WAIST LINE

When you buy Remel, you buy a preparation for taking off weight. You do not pay for any special diet or for vitamins to fortify you against weakness while on a starvation diet. You save money by buying Remel in the original 155 pound bottle. Remel is the original powerful juice which is able to take off fat.

Just go to your druggist and ask for four bottles of Remel. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take just two tablespoonsful before a meal. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the results, you may be sure to get the second one. If you don't get the results you want, return the empty bottle for your money back.

Lost 19 Pounds
The following is one of the many amazing endorsements we have received. Don't share—eat plenty and take off weight with Remel.

"When I began to take Remel Concentrate, I weighed 155 pounds. I now weigh 136 pounds. I was a dress size much smaller—thanks to Remel. It has made me feel better in every way. It took fat away from my stomach and that, of course, has made me look much better."

Signed: Mary Frances Ratcliff, 261 Monroe Street, Farmer City, Illinois.

The endorsement of Remel are long with their own effect. Please don't contact them. We will pay $100.00 if we cannot produce the above testimonial.

OIL HUNT RESUMES IN BAVARIA

Munich — (AP) — The acute fuel oil shortage in Germany has caused geologists to resume their search for oil in the Bavarian mountains. Years of researches which were halted during the war convinced geologists that oil can be found in the deeper soil in the mountain area. Test drillings are under way in several parts of this American-occupied state, newspapers report, but results are said to be meager.

The only active oil wells in Germany, in the British-occupied region around Hannover, have very small yields.

Yes, there's a championship caliber all through that Buick of yours.

It's caliber that calls for mighty keds "conditioning"—if the attention it gets adds up to really knowing and understanding cars.

Shifted service men—Buick to their finger tips—know how to bring out all the Fireball zip and go.

And when wear does take its inescapable toll, we have the parts—Buick-engineered for their job—that restore factory-new standards of performance.

Even our tools are specially designed to do a typical Buick job—and for the personal, interested, specialized attention that tops off genuine Buick care, you simply can't beat the Buick specialists in our shop.

Yes, give your champ real Buick care—Buick know-how, Buick parts, Buick interest in keeping your car at its peak. Costs no more than ordinary attentions—but what a whale of a difference it makes!

REDS GET FOOD FROM LUPINE

Moscow—(P)—From White Russia it is reported that lupine, which formerly was raised only as fodder for cattle and as a natural fertilizer, is being used as a raw material for industry. Two Belorussian scientists have discovered a means of removing harmful alkaloids from the lupine crop and it thus can be used as raw material for food products and medicines. Another scientist has discovered how to separate protein from lupine seed and obtains a product not inferior to protein of animal derivation. From lupine, states "Izvestia," there can be made high quality and cheap artificial wool, plastics and plywood glue.

ENTIRE SPRINGFIELD FAMILY USING THIS SPLENDID MEDICINE

"Mother, father and I are all using Rentox," writes Mrs. L. Strommel, 532 W. Washington St. "I am in better health than I have been in years and am enjoying all of my friends about Rentox. For some time I have been suffering from arthritis, my arms and hands would hurt so badly I couldn't sleep at night. I also had trouble with my gall bladder and was so sick at my stomach in the morning that I couldn't eat anything without having it turn gas. I heard about Rentox and decided to try it. Before finishing the first bottle I noticed a difference, my fingers stopped getting numb and I was no longer sick to my stomach. Mother was suffering from neuritis and father bloated so much that by evening he was in great discomfort. They are both taking Rentox and it has helped them in so many ways."

36 INGREDIENTS
Rentox contains 36 splendid ingredients—herbs, plant extracts, iron and other medicinal agents. By eliminating toxic poisons from the system, so-called rheumatic and arthritic pains are eliminated. Run down feeling, lack of vitality and pep are relieved. Helps kidneys and bladder too. Stops getting up nights. Rentox will not gripe, nauseate or make you sick in the slightest degree. It can be taken by every member of the family. Relieves constipation in a few hours and tones the bowels into a more rhythmic action.

Why not go to your druggist and ask for a bottle of Rentox today? Be sure that by evening he was in great discomfort. They are both taking Rentox and it has helped them in so many ways."

The endorser of Rentox are busy with their own affairs. Please don't contact them. We will pay $100.00 if we cannot produce the above testimonial.

All Quiet—For the Moment

High atop the "Star of the Winds," an ancient Arab fortress, Haganah troops keep their sights trained on Syrian positions, less than 400 yards away, during the Palestine truce. Stretching to the horizon in the background is the Jordan Valley, which this crumbling bastion in Kaukab El Hawak overlooks. No shooting has occurred in this area since the cease-fire order went into effect, but both sides remain on the alert. (Photo by NEA-Acme staff correspondent Julius Huml.)

WHEAT FIRM, CORN AND OATS SHOW NO DEFINITE TREND

Chicago, June 24.—(P)—Wheat firmed on the Board of Trade today but corn and oats showed no definite trend.

Part of the buying in wheat came from mills, reflecting sales of flour overnight to the government. An expected delay in harvesting the new crop in the southwest, a natural development following heavy rains in that area, also helped steady the market.

The July corn contract was steady, up of the day, largely because of the shortage of old crop grain. More deferred deliveries, however, eased on improved crop prospects. Oats also were mixed with the July showing eastness most of the session.

Receipts were: wheat 28 cars, corn 16, oats 10, and soybeans 10.

Wheat closed 1-1 higher, July $2.31-1, corn was 1/2 lower to 1 higher, July $2.21-2.23, oats were unchanged to 1/2 lower, July $1.1-1, and soybeans were unchanged, July $1.16.

Rain Postpones Fight; To Try Again Tonight

Yankee Stadium, New York, June 24.—(P)—A heavy thunderstorm broke over the Bronx shortly before 5:30 p.m. (CST) tonight and forced a second postponement of the Joe Louis-Jersey Joe Walcott heavy-weight championship fight.

The bout now is set for tomorrow night and the outlook is bleak indeed. Later afternoon showers were predicted for tomorrow. Several thousands of the faithful who took a rain-beating tonight probably will pass a possible second helping.

Called Off At 7:25

After waiting hopefully for something close to a miracle to happen, the promoting Twentieth Century sporting club reluctantly announced the postponement at 7:25 p.m.

The gladiators had weighed in yesterday—the champion at 213½ and Walcott at 193¼—but won't have to go through the ceremony again, since there is no weight limit for heavyweights. New York state athletic commissioner Eddie Egan and both managers agreed to waive the meaningless procedure.

A crowd of around 50,000 and a gate of approximately $250,000 had been expected by the promoters when the day broke hot and sunny. Both the attendance and gate are expected to be hit hard by tonight's set-back.

Harry Markson, 26th century publicist, said in the event of another postponement tomorrow the fight would be held Saturday night.

Louis Returns To Camp

Both fighters were in the stadium when the decision to postpone was made. Louis sat outside in his car for over an hour.

"How they gonna have a fight?" he asked.

Later he returned to his Pompton Lakes, N.J., training camp to spend the night. He will drive in again tomorrow afternoon, leaving at about 1:00 p.m. (CST).

"I don't think it will bother me any more than it does him," he declared. "It's fair to both of us."

Walcott Stays In City

Walcott said he planned to remain in the city at an Eighth avenue hotel. Felix Boocichio, his sponsor, said he didn't think Jersey Joe would be affected by the second rainout.

Mike Jacobs, actual promoter of the fight, was on the scene, pacing up and down in the Yankee office under the stands. He indicated that the gate would have been "over $200,000" if the fight had been held.

The fellow we did the biggest business was an enterprising youngster who hawked army rain capes outside the stadium at 50 cents per copy. He did a landoffice business.

Annual Program Given At Meeting Of Asbury WSCS

The annual Asbury W.S.C.S. program presented by children of the members was given at the home of Mrs. Earl Hembrough. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Harry Clark and Mrs. Jack Pennell.

Mrs. Kathleen Hembrough conducted a short business session, followed by devotions in charge of Mrs. Geneva Becker who was also program chairman. She presented the following young people who gave a program of songs and recitations: David Hembrough, Alice McNeely, Nadine Sjoy, Dannie Hembrough and Grace Ann Hembrough.

Mrs. Elva Clark and Joy Coultas of Winchester were present and gave several numbers, including a duet, a vocal solo by Miss Clark and a humorous reading by Miss Coultas.

Following the program refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. Guests were Mrs. Fred McGinnison, Elva Clark, Joy Coultas, Grace Ann Hembrough, Alice McNeely, Nadine Sjoy, Dannie and David Hembrough.

The next meeting will be a picnic held at the church in July.

Helium occurs in the air, but no commercially practical process for extracting it has been developed. In order to obtain enough to inflate an average size dirigible airship, more than two trillion cubic feet of air would have to be treated.

Nobody Loves Forever
By Marguerite Brucker

XXXVIII
"LUCY will be home the first of the month," Tom told Jessica one evening. Then he added, "You will be free to leave then."
"Free? How could she be free, she wondered irritably. She wanted so desperately to shake off the burden of anxiety and worry which enveloped this old house. She tried to convince herself that she would be glad—yes, glad when she turned her back forever on Tom Blake and his family.
One afternoon David invited her to go for a drive. No reason to refuse. Tom had no interest in what she did. His aloofness hurt her. After all, she had tried so hard to help him during his trouble, struggled to keep the house as his mother kept it, worked valiantly learning to cook, and feeling a surge of pride when Tom occasionally praised her. Not love—no, she and Tom no longer loved each other. They shared a home, which was something different, something which lacked the thrill of that mad ecstasy they had shared before Tom brought her to Akron. Something she would never experience again, once she left Tom.
The thought angered her. When she left she wanted to make a clean cut, have nothing to remind her of Tom.
But there was Betty, she remembered. She thought of Betty now as David remarked that since housing conditions were difficult, they might live in a hotel.
Jessica wanted to say that Betty would not thrive in a hotel, but there was time enough to discuss that later. Right now she had another plan to which she must win David's consent, a plan that had come to her the night before when she was writing her father, telling him she would soon be home in Kentucky.
David liked to talk about Kentucky. He was always interested in her descriptions of her home and the big plantation which her grandmother owned. Now she introduced the subject and he listened attentively.
Jessica was a bit breathless as she broached her plan. "I want to take Lucy with me to Kentucky." "Permanently?" "I don't know—You see—the change will help her." she pleaded.
A GLANCE at his set face told her that David was angry. He looked straight ahead as he skillfully threaded the thick downtown traffic. He said bluntly, "That plan is out—definitely out. Do you suppose I want to visit you and confront that girl? Have you considered what Linton will think?" "Why should I care what Hugh Linton thinks?" "Because Hugh Linton has the power to dictate my future." An oppressive silence followed. David turned off the busy street and drove on for blocks. Then suddenly the car entered a park entrance, the same park to which Jessica had taken Betty one bright autumn afternoon when she was heartless and lonely.
David stopped the car. The sun slanted, blood red, through the snow-cold trees.
"Do you remember?" he asked softly.
"Yes." Her voice seemed lost in the silence of the woods.
David pulled her roughly toward him and kissed her again and again. "There was no warmth in her lips. He gave a startled exclamation.
"I love you, darling," he told her.
Many, many times he had said that, and always she had thrilled to his voice. Now she pushed him away.
She said, "I don't love you, David."
THE silence terrified her. It was David. The shadows deepened in the woods and she could not see David's face clearly. After a little while he repeated blankly, "You don't love me?" "No. I'm afraid I never loved you."
David said harshly, "What do I do now? Laugh? Is this some crazy joke? Are you angry because I objected to your scheme to help Blake's sister?"
"That had nothing to do with it," said Jessica sadly.
But his lack of understanding about Lucy, about anything which brought worry or anxiety or discomfort, contributed greatly to her realization that she and David possessed nothing upon which to build happiness.
Their love lacked foundation. No love could exist upon anything so flimsy as a careless and soft living, and desire for pleasure.
"I'm sorry," she said.
David said eagerly, "Please darling." And then, as she pulled her hand away when he tried to take it, "You aren't sorry. Let's be truthful now if we never are again. You aren't sorry. You're more or less relieved. Ever since Tom Blake came home you've been different. Do you want to know what I think, Jessica? I think you're still in love with your husband."
He stopped and kissed her gently. Then he started the motor. "Don't fret about me, Jessica," he said. "I'll get me another girl."
When David left her at the house he made no move to touch her other than to hold her hand for an instant. Jessica stood on the porch steps in the darkness and watched him drive away, his hand waving in a salute, a gallant gesture of farewell to her.
She entered the house. Tom came down the stairs to meet her, pulling an envelope from his pocket. "I picked up your reservation," he said matter-of-factly. "I stopped and ordered it the other day. I wanted to be sure there would be no uncertainty about your leaving."
He turned and walked away. Jessica stood staring after him. She held the envelope in her hand. She wanted to laugh hysterically, to cry. She didn't want David and Tom didn't want her.

Illinois, After Valiant Effort For Taft, Gives 56 Votes To Dewey

Philadelphia, June 24—(AP)—Republican convention leaders tonight were reported to be eyeing Gov. Dwight H. Green of Illinois as a possible vice presidential nominee. Green was silent.

His staff said he had returned to his hotel headquarters immediately after the convention ended tonight and they knew nothing about the reports.

At the convention, after Thomas E. Dewey was nominated for president, Green just grinned and said "is that so?" when a reporter told him a Dewey-Green ticket must be in the making.

Philadelphia, June 24—(AP)—Illinois Republicans, after a valiant 50-vote effort for Taft, calmly gave all 56 to New York's Governor Dewey tonight to make him the party's presidential nominee.

The Green-Brooks-McCormick combination sensed the outcome of the main event before the Illinoisans took their seats for the night session. But they said nothing, listening silently as reporters told them it was over.

They came on the second ballot for the Republican convention's presidential nomination, and they jumped Taft's total from 224 to 274—an increase of 50.

Taft expected 51 Illinois votes on the third ballot and as long as he had a chance.

All 56 Illinois votes went to Green as a favorite son compliment on the first ballot—also as promised.

5 Switch on Second Count
Then, on the second count, five Illinoisans switched to New York's Governor Dewey.

The other Illinois vote on the second ballot was cast by a Taft backer for Speaker Joe Martin. It also was a complimentary vote—by Frederick A. Virkus, La Grange publisher, who planned to vote later for Taft—his first choice.

The second ballot Dewey votes from Illinois were cast by Lt. Gov. Hugh W. Cross of Jerseyville; Rep. Everett Dirksen of Pekin; Roy F. Leverenz, Naperville, a Teamsters union official; Earl C. Pollock, East St. Louis tire and battery dealer; and James S. Kemper, Chicago insurance executive who is treasurer of the GOP national convention.

Illinois decided in a caucus motion, just as the afternoon session got under way, to give Taft 52 and Dewey 4 "on the second and subsequent ballots."

Called Dewey "Very Weak"
Shortly before the first balloting began, Col. Robert R. McCormick assailed Dewey as "very weak."

He said Kemper, a fellow delegate-at-large from Chicago, was "working for a break" so as "to be secretary of the treasury."

Kemper promptly replied to McCormick's statement with a Kemper statement saying:

"No candidate has ever discussed a political appointment with me, nor has any political appointment ever been considered by me. I have no ambitions outside of the insurance business."

Both Kemper and McCormick are delegates-at-large from Chicago.

The Chicago Tribune editor and publisher, backing Taft for president and suggesting Harold E. Stassen for second place, said he thought "election of Dewey would be very problematical."

"Bought Indiana," McCormick
He said Dewey "bought the Indiana delegation by giving the vice presidency to Halleck," he told a reporter.

"Indiana is a close state and may lose its whole state ticket as a result."

He referred to Rep. Charles Halleck, House Republican leader, who quit as Indiana's favorite son in favor of Dewey.

McCormick and Senator Brooks (R-Ill.), as well as Green, used their influence to give Taft the 50 Illinois delegates in round two. Among them are about ten downstate and one Chicagoan. Valores Washington, who have been lukewarm to Taft and friendly to Dewey.

Some of these, as they left the afternoon session, were considering switching to Dewey in the night balloting.

They felt they had done their duty to Green, and with Dewey so close to victory, they could save political face and satisfy labor union friends at home by ending up in the Dewey parade.

White Hall—Historic church events dating back to 1826 will be commemorated by members of the White Hall First Baptist church when they observe their annual homecoming July 4. At this time the 25th anniversary of the remodeling of the present church building will be marked, and the Rev. L. E. Ellison, pastor at the time the church was remodeled, will speak at a special evening service.

Following the morning worship a basket dinner will be served on the rear lawn of the church.

Founded in 1826
The history of the local church goes back to 1826, when it was started in a log cabin on Henderson creek (now known as Seminary creek) just south of White Hall. The Rev. Elijah Dodson was the first pastor.

After the establishment of the city of White Hall in 1833 the congregation changed its meeting place and in 1836 erected a church building on South Main street, north of the present Catholic church. This church was the scene of a variety of historic events during the 1800's.

In 1844 a joint debate was held there by Stephen A. Douglas, then Democratic candidate for Congress, and D. M. Woodson, the Whig candidate.

Pioneer Preachers
Many pioneer preachers held service there, including Dr. John M. Cook, founder of Shurtleff college.

Flora Hamilton, daughter of B. B. Hamilton, who was organized at the church for a number of years, wrote many hymns, of which "The King's Business" is the best known. The church may also claim the distinction of being the birthplace of the Illinois Baptist State Convention, since the preliminary meeting to organize the convention was held there in 1839, with Dr. Peck as moderator.

Enlarged, Remodeled in '23
The present church edifice was erected in 1891 under the leadership of the Rev. H. L. Derr, who saw the need of a larger place of worship for his growing congregation. When the Rev. Ellison became pastor in 1922 he realized the need for further enlargement and remodeling of the building, and in 1923 the present church was completed at the cost of $20,000. In addition to the church building, there is a nine-room parsonage and large recreational grounds in the rear of the church. The present church membership is 513 and the average weekly Sunday school attendance last year was 307. The Rev. Ben A. Bohn is entering his fourth year as pastor, during which time 235 members have been received into the church.

Since the date of its organization the church has been a missionary one, identified with the Northern Baptist Convention. One of its members, Miss Inez Green, is serving as a missionary with the Door of Hope mission in Shanghai, China.

Excitement Caused By Chemistry Set Fished From Lake

The case of the drowned chemistry set remained unsolved last night, but it did cause a bit of excitement.

Children playing late Thursday morning near the spillway of Lake Mauvaisterre directly south of the pumping station noticed some clothing floating in the water. Fire Chief Charles Loneragan and Fireman Dale W. Bond brought out the grappling hooks to investigate.

A dry-land view of the clothing revealed it was a chemist's smock made of treated cotton fabric. Soundings with a plaster hook brought up an advanced chemical set, the kind given at Christmas time to children who like to dabble with alkalies, acids and reagents.

The two men, aided by profuse suggestions from on-lookers continued their soundings of the basin. Charles DeWitt helped the firemen by furnishing a boat and outboard motor. Nothing else was found, excepting some wire, a piece of tin roofing and other accumulated debris.

Amateur detectives, in a review of the case, opined that some parent had tossed the chemistry set into the water sometime after Christmas, a short time after the young student had filled the house with noxious fumes.

The bottles of chemicals were nearly all full; no test tubes had disappeared. The bottles were in a blue-enamelled metal case. Two instruction books were very water-soaked.

Workmen Prepare Elk's Building For Resurfacing

Preparation of the local Elk's club building for an outside resurfacing job and a new look for the north side of the structure began this week with workmen busily engaged in removing the old finish and dismantling the seldom used terrace facing W. Morgan St.

Plans call for the use of granite, a rough cement finish, in resurfacing the building. A grass plot, matching that to the east, will replace the area formerly occupied by the terrace.

The Elk's lodge was originally built for use by the Y.M.C.A. and was dedicated October 13, 1881.

Hunger Fighters

By the Journal Courier Farm Editor
The above photograph was taken at the Royal Oakes wheat day demonstration held at Bluffs Wednesday. The three men are standing in a lush growth of Royal wheat. Formerly known as Illinois D-85, this bearded, soft winter wheat promises to become one of the best varieties for farmers of this area.

The three men are Ralph Allen of Delavan, Dr. J. C. Hackleman, crop extension specialist of the University of Illinois, and Mr. Oakes, Scott county farmer who has cooperated for so many years with the plant breeders of America. The latter admit that men like Mr. Oakes offset the week link in the chain in their constant endeavors to give mankind more and better food.

Field Trials Needed
Plant breeders mix fun, hope and work as they create new varieties. The new plants, like children, may be successful or complete flops. They must prove their value.

In 1933 the College of Agriculture had a new wheat. They were rather proud of it. It looked like the money. They named it Illinois Progeny No. 2.

Over in Tazewell county one of their friends aspired to raise a crop of wheat that would top the record established by his father in 1918, when the elder won a bronze medal with a yield of more than 50 bushels per acre. He accepted enough of the new seed to plant 33 acres on his Tazewell county farm near Green Valley.

Frequent inspections convinced the grower, Ralph Allen, that perhaps the crop would equal, or maybe better, the record established by his father. Then one day the whole field began to look sick. It looked worse the next day. Allen called for help. The proud creators came to look at their ailing child. The University of Illinois specialists didn't like what they saw, for Progeny No. 2 was a pushover for mosaic disease.

This is a virus disease, evidently soil-borne. It attacks the leaves and the stem. The leaves have a mottled appearance, with lighter blotches intermingled with the true color of the leaf. Pretty soon the leaf turns brown and the plant dies.

Mr. Allen recalled Wednesday that he "did run a combine over the field. It made around five bushels to the acre."

Some Resisted Disease
Although such a disaster disheartens a practical farmer, it stimulates the plant breeder. Dr. Hackleman, Dr. O. T. Bonnett and Dr. Benjamin Koehler and their assistants went to work. They surveyed the field to find individual specimens that resisted the severe infestation. Two hundred plants were located and staked. Later they were transferred to flower pots. One hundred matured in Beltsville, Maryland; the other half ripened in the greenhouses of Urbana.

Mr. Allen continued to help. He shipped a ton of the mosaic-laden soil to Beltsville, where it was used by plant scientists to infect other wheats "that looked good, up to now."

A few handfuls of kernels ripened. They were used as parents in future crosses, with the hope that they would enhance the quality of mosaic-resistant types.

That hope was realized to an unbelievable extent. Illinois Progeny No. 2, the softie for mosaic, is one of the parents of Prairie and Royal, today rated No. 1 and No. 2 among the soft wheats for this area.

Park Pool Expects Attendance Pickup With Hot Weather

Attendance at the Nichols Park swimming pool has been somewhat smaller than expected to date but with the arrival of real hot weather swimmers are expected to take to the 'dip' in ever increasing numbers. The pool usually draws its greatest crowds during the latter part of July and the first two weeks of August if past records can be used as a yardstick.

Good news for those who have complained in past years about the heavy use of chlorine to purify the water is contained in an announcement by Glenn Skinner, Jr., manager at the pool. According to Mr. Skinner a different system of chemical analysis has been adopted this year employing sodium bromide.

A coat of bright blue paint applied recently has added to the attractiveness of the pool.

Hours for swimming at the pool this summer are from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. on weekdays and from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. on Sundays.

Morgan-Scott 4-H Camp Discussed At Winchester

Winchester—Plans for the Morgan-Scott summer camp to be held July 1-24 were discussed by Mrs. Eloise Thelen at the meeting of the Neighborhood Girls 4-H club held Wednesday at the home of Grace and Marjane Smith.

Plans for a play day were also outlined, and it was announced that the club would appear on a radio program over station WLDJ on July 13.

Talks were given by Marjane Smith, Mildred Weder, Frances O'Donnell, Grace Smith and Virginia Brown. The recreation period was led by Marjane Smith and Mildred Weder, and refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the meeting.

The Bid and Pass pinocle club met at the home of Mrs. Margaret Towell at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday. Prizes were won by Helen Doyle, Minnie McDade, and Catherine Carter.

Miss Nell Ryan of Jacksonville spent Wednesday here.

Freddie Evans left Thursday for Quantico, Va., where he will take six weeks summer training in the Marine Reserve Corps.

Collision Results In Slight Damage

Small damage resulted when two automobiles collided on the east side of the square late Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. John Ryman of rural route 4, Jacksonville, was driving a 1936 Chevrolet north on the east side of the square. Her car collided with a 1946 Plymouth driven by Harriett Smith of New Berlin, who turned right to go down East State street.

In the 17th century the French stored clothes in wooden boxes along with a few pine cones.

Father Of Popular Radio Star Visits Friends In City

Skip Farrell, popular WGN singing star who frequently has been named over the radio that he is from Jacksonville, was born here October 9, 1918, at 1123 W. Lafayette avenue, his father told a Journal-Courier reporter yesterday.

Charles A. Fiedler, Farrell's father, now of Springfield, was visiting friends here Friday. He was formerly employed by the W. C. Cannon Produce company of this city.

Farrell's first public appearance was at the age of three, when he performed at a White Shrine meeting in Jacksonville with the Short Sisters (now Mrs. Dwight McCoy of Springfield, Mrs. Hugh Green, and Mrs. Isabel Woods). While still quite young he began entertaining with the Frank Hodasky orchestra of Springfield, after which he studied for a year at Wesleyan university in Bloomington.

From there he went with WGN to Chicago, where he was on the Edna O'Del show. Subsequently he has appeared on the Alka Seltzer show, the Maple City Four, the Bowman Dairy show, and has just signed his fourth contract with the McLaughlin Coffee company for the Manor House show.

Paul O. Sampson, Noted Dietitian, Addresses Lions

Paul O. Sampson, dietitian and lecturer, addressed members of the Lions club at their meeting held Wednesday evening.

Speaking on the topic, "The Joy of Eating," Sampson expressed the opinion that much of the food consumed today is too highly refined. Much of the nutritive value is thereby lost, he said, backing up his ideas by quoting various medical authorities.

Richard Lukeman and Lewis Simms reported on the progress of the plans for the coming fall festival, which probably will be held at the fairgrounds. Tickets for the festival were distributed by E. J. Kormsmyer.

At next Wednesday's meeting, the election of officers will be formally held and the newly-elected officers will be installed. Richard Bell, an international director of Lions International, will be the installing officer.

Another resolution asks service compensation for World War I veterans. It would provide $3 a day for home service, not to exceed $3,500, and $4 a day for overseas service, with a maximum of $4,500. An additional $500 for combat wounds was included.

The resolutions, with 20 others, went to committees for consideration and recommendation. They were presented at the encampment's first business session.

Ten thousand persons from 525 state chapters of the VFW are expected to attend the convention, which will close Saturday.

Pumping Operations Underway At Waverly Oil And Gas Field

With the tanks ready to receive oil, pipe lines laid, the equipment installed, operations got underway Wednesday afternoon for pumping, storing and marketing oil at the recently brought in well on the George W. McDevitt farm, a little over two miles south of Waverly on Route 111.

The pumping equipment in operation is the visible proof that at long last the faith of those who believed in a Waverly gas and oil field of commercial proportions is about to be rewarded.

The quest for oil and gas in the Waverly community began many years ago. Around the turn of the century a well at the tile factory, just north of town on the old C. S. Springfield, Mrs. Hugh Green, and Mrs. Isabel Woods). While still quite young he began entertaining with the Frank Hodasky orchestra of Springfield, after which he studied for a year at Wesleyan university in Bloomington.

From there he went with WGN to Chicago, where he was on the Edna O'Del show. Subsequently he has appeared on the Alka Seltzer show, the Maple City Four, the Bowman Dairy show, and has just signed his fourth contract with the McLaughlin Coffee company for the Manor House show.

Attempts Short Lived
The attempts for production, however, were short lived until Gordon W. Fielder of Springfield, and associates, entered the field. Mr. Fielder first came to Waverly in 1939 securing leases, but was not successful in signing up sufficient acreage, and left after a short time. An experienced oil man in Kansas and other oil producing states, with successful men as his associates, and having the services of two of the nation's outstanding geologists who are specialists in oil and gas formations, he kept studying the prospects for a Waverly oil and gas field, and became convinced of that community's possibilities.

In 1944 Mrs. Fielder returned to Waverly and again went about the business of securing leases, and finally signed up a block of 8200 acres. His first well, on the B. J. Stenemeyer farm about a mile south of town on Route No. 111 was drilled in July and August, 1946, and produced at a rate of 2,000 cubic feet flow of gas per day. The drilling of wells on the nearby McMahan farm in August of the same year and the Kenneth Wheeler and E. S. Williams farms in March and December, 1947, produced slightly better results. Then came the well on the George W. McDevitt farm that has shown sufficient oil possibilities that preparations have been completed for marketing. Morris Roberts, residing on the farm which is now owned by George W. McDevitt, of California. Old timers will recall it as the one time Ralph Curtis farm.

Drilling Began Feb. 22
Drilling on the McDevitt well began on February 22, 1948, and was completed on May 5, at 1040 feet in the Devonian structure, which is one of the largest oil producing structures in the state. After reaching the 1040 ft. level the well was acidized and swabbed, and it appears that it will produce oil in commercial quantities. Petroleum engineers, experienced in the Illinois field, estimate it will make 60 barrels per day.

The geologists, who have been consultants of Mr. Fielder since the beginning of his operations here, are Dr. John L. Rich, in charge of the well, and the Stenemeyer well was drilled in July and August of 1946, the official monthly report of the State Geological Survey stated "it may open up a new pool." When the results of the McMahan well, drilled next, became known, that section to the southwest of town became officially designated as "Waverly Pool." The blue prints of the subsurface formations there, as drawn by Dr. Rich, show the definite existence of a dome which has been named in the records the "Waverly Dome."

When the results of the McMahan well, drilled next, became known, that section to the southwest of town became officially designated as "Waverly Pool." The blue prints of the subsurface formations there, as drawn by Dr. Rich, show the definite existence of a dome which has been named in the records the "Waverly Dome."
